

One Item Only
By Theatre Royal Bath

If you had to take a long journey away from home and you could only take one item with you, what would it be?

Armed with only a backpack of favourite items, follow one child's continental adventures across deserts, wind-whipped mountains and the inky depths of the ocean, propelled by the child's gently-repeating mantra 'just keep moving forward'.

Expect live drawing, evocative, worldwide soundscapes, remarkable simplicity and a profound sense of what it is to be human as our little hero's perilous journey quietly unpacks the importance of having a place to call 'home'.
